

Former model and leading coach Shereena Delgado opens a model academy!

Top model trainer and former model Shereena Delgado is pleased to announce that she has launched a model academy at the Galleria Mall in November 2021. "Straight Walk Runway", her academy is driven by the mission to develop industry-leading international models through expert coaching on every aspect of the runway and the modelling world. The academy will also provide rental space for creative shoots, fashion shows and pop up shops for clothing and accessory designers.

Straight Walk Runway is located at Galleria Mall, 100 Main Street White Plains, NY 10601. The academy has officially opened on November 1, 2021.

"It's an exciting moment for me to share with you all that I will have opened my new modelling academy at the Galleria Mall. The academy will coach aspiring models on how to walk the runway, take photos, and elevate themselves into international models that we all look up to. They will receive mentorship from seasoned models like me and other experts that will eventually help them to scale up their careers to the global level", stated Shereena.

Shereena has been coaching models since 2017 and has operated across all of the New York City boroughs, Bronx, Manhattan, Queens, Brooklyn, and Staten Island and has also serviced Long Island. Ms. Delgado has also worked key Industry circuits outside of the USA, namely Canada, London and France.

She usually works on fashion shows and shoots in Manhattan but having recognized a demand and need in her region, she is bringing her skills to Westchester County for the first time with her new modeling academy.

Backed by a team of experienced models and coaching experts, Straight Walk Runway is aimed to train models as per the classic model development techniques that are designed to develop international-standard Runway models. The models will be supported with all-inclusive knowledge on the modelling world as well as hands-on techniques on walking the runway like a pro. Besides, Straight Walk Runway will also help the models with casting and photoshoot opportunities to elevate their career.

"Straight Walk Runway goes beyond developing the looks of the aspiring models rather we are more focused on transforming lives inside out. Our goal is to guide our models not only about their makeup and postures but also about their inner beauty and positive spirit. We want to instill a sense of confidence, self-esteem, and ethical values in them that would uplift them as an individual both professionally and personally."

In addition, Shereena endeavors to help out aspiring fashion designers. She is looking forward to renting the windows of her academy to up and coming designers.

"As a fashion professional, I am always looking for opportunities to support my fellow professionals in the fashion community. Thus, my new academy is not only about mentoring models but also about offering an opportunity to new emerging cloth and accessory designers which will enable them to showcase their promising creations to the world.
